HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

BOLLER HOUSE

HABS No. MO-1369

Location: Boonville, Cooper County, Missouri

HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL INFORMATION

The following information was recorded by Alexander Piaget and Charles van Ravenswaay at the time the photograph was taken:

Built ca. 1830. Burned and subsequently demolished in the 1970s or early 1980s (information from Osmond Overby, 8 January 1986). Occupied by Isaac Lionberger in 1845. It was then a one story house on a high hill. The hill was later graded down and an understory put under the original house making the present two story structure. Very early portico is perhaps unique in the state.

(During the late 1860s, this was the home of Judge John G. Miller.)

PROJECT INFORMATION

The Piaget-van Ravenswaay Survey consists of a number of photographs, primarily of sites and structures in Missouri, which were taken before 1938 by Alexander Piaget and after that by Paul Piaget, both in conjunction with Charles van Ravenswaay. Photographs of buildings were incorporated into the HABS collection in 1985 by Laura Rupp, HABS historian. A master list is available in the ~~MO-1800~~ records for MO-1800.
